Accessing CITI Training if you DON’T have a Cornell NetID
[see bottom of page for email contacts if you still need help or have questions]

1. For people who WILL be getting a Cornell NetID but don’t have one yet:
   a. Contact Cornell CIT (Cornell Information Technology). Their website is: www.it.cornell.edu. Helpdesk: call 607.255.5500. They will need to set you up with a NetID.

1. For people who are not Cornell faculty, staff or students but may be working with Cornell researchers on a research project that requires CITI trainings:
   b. You should see this home page:

   !CITI Program Home Page

   Over 9.0 million CITI Program courses have been completed since 2000.

   c. Click on “Register” to create an account.
   d. You will be taken to the Learner Registration Page:
e. In the box that says “Select Your Organization Affiliation,” type Cornell University. The box will auto-fill. Make sure you don’t accidentally select “Weill Cornell Medical College” or “Weill Cornell Medical College in Qatar.”

f. Once Cornell University is selected, click “Continue.” If you weren’t able to select, try again by using “Search Again” or re-type.

[Continue to Step 2]  [Search Again]

g. Fill out all required fields on each page and continue forward. You will be asked to provide basic information such as name, email address, create a username and password, security questions and answers, country of residence, etc.

[h. Go through each Step until you get to Step 5.]

i. Step 5 will ask you the following questions. Most people answer “No” to the questions about continuing professional certification.

Are you interested in the option of receiving Continuing Education Unit (CEU) credit for completed CITI Program courses?

CITI is pleased to offer CE credits and units for purchase to learners qualifying for CE eligibility while concurrently meeting their institutions training requirements.

CE credits/units for physicians, psychologists, nurses, social workers and other professions allowed to use AMA PRA Category 1 credits for re-certification are available for many CITI courses— with that availability indicated on course and module listings. Please register your interest for CE credits below by checking the “YES” or “NO” dots, and, when applicable, types of credits you wish to earn at bottom of page. Please read texts entered for each option carefully.

Yes

At the start of your course, you will be prompted to click on a “CE Information” page link located at the top of your grade book and to view and acknowledge accreditation and credit designation statements, learning objectives, faculty disclosures, types, number and costs of credits available for your course.

- Yes

No

The CE functionality will not be activated for your course. Credits and units will therefore not be available to you for purchase after you start your course. You can change your preference to “YES” before such time however by clicking on the “CE Credit Status” tab located at the top of your grade book page.

- No

If you picked “YES”, please check below the one type of credit you would like to earn

- MDs, DOs, PAs - AMA PRA Category 1 Credits TM
- Psychologists – APA Credits
- Nurses - ANCC CNE
- Other Participants – Certificates of Participation
- Social Workers – Florida Board of Clinical Social Work, Marriage & Family Therapy and Mental Health Counseling

Can CITI Program contact you at a later date regarding participation in research surveys?

- Yes
- No
- Not sure. Ask me later

j. Page 7 of the registration process takes you to the “CITI Course Selection” page. Please refer to the Instructions on ORIA’s website for information on adding and accessing the specific training courses you need.

If you have questions regarding whether or not you will be getting a NetID, or when, please contact CIT at www.cit.cornell.edu or 607.255.5500.

If you have a NetID and have questions about getting a CITI account and completing training, please contact one of the following:
